D-Marin Didim

37°20'26"N, 27°15'34"E VHF 16 & 72

One of the largest luxury marinas in the Eastern Mediterranean, D-Marin Didim is a first-class home base for yachts and superyachts entering the splendid Aegean Sea.

Location

D-Marin Didim sits on western Turkey's stretch of shoreline, near Didim, a charming seaside town known as the "City of the Golden Coast". An official port of entry, the marina is located between two International Airports: Milas-Bodrum (90 km southeast) and İzmir Adnan Menderes (145 km north).

Nature

Explore Turkey's spectacular Aegean beaches; sunbathe on the golden sands of Altinkum or dip into turquoise-blue waters at Manastir Bay. Two magnificent Greek islands await less than 30 nautical miles away; Kos is Hippocrates' birthplace and Kalymnos is a hikers' paradise.

THINGS TO DO & FACILITIES

Yacht Club

Yacht Club has a hotel with 16 rooms, a swimming pool including an attractive restaurant offering a wide array of international flavors. The restaurant is also available to hotel guests, yacht owners and holiday-makers.

Cuisine

Discover fresh Mediterranean fare of the Turkish coast, from mezes like eggplant in tahini yogurt to desserts like katmer, a pistachio pancake. Don't miss the seafood casserole at Key-F Restaurant & Café.

Wellness

If you want to relax, enjoy treatments and take care of yourself, you are in the right place. The D-Marin Didim is waiting for you in three functional treatment rooms: a relaxation room, sauna & steam room and an astounding 6,000 square foot fitness centre.

The Blue Point Beach Club

Located on the sea shore, the Blue Point Beach Club is also a part of the Yacht Club. It is open during the summer season and has a marvelous wooden platform with 150 sunbeds for enjoying the sun and the sea. The Blue Point Beach Club is the right place if you want refreshments with an excellent and exceedingly delicious food and beverages.

Culture

The nearby ruins of the Temple of Apollo showcase over 2000 years of diverse history, from ancient Greek to Christian. Once part of the Ionian League, Priene is another easy outing, 46km away. Nearby Bafa Lake isn't all nature: legend says the goddess Selene loved a mortal there.

MUST-SEE

Take in the Hellenistic Great Theatre and the Roman Faustina Bath at the formerly vibrant Miletus. The birthplace of modern philosophy, the now-ruined city was historically inhabited and influenced by ancient Greeks, Persians, Romans, Christians and Turks, ever since the Bronze Age.

Head to the marvelous Greek island of Samos, less than 30 nautical miles away and known as birthplace of ancient mathematician Pythagoras. Famed for its muscat wine, Samos is home to the ruined Temple of Hera, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, along with fine pebble and sand beaches.
