Catch a concert at the open-air amphitheatre at St. Michael's Fortress perched at the top of the old town; take in spectacular views of the islands from Barone Fortress and admire St. Nicholas' Fortress on an islet, declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2017. Gaze at St. James Cathedral, a striking triple-nave basilica built entirely of stone between 1431 and 1535. This grand domed beauty with carved faces adorning its walls has been a World Heritage Site since 2000, preserving its Gothic-Renaissance features. Roam the car-free Zlarin island in the Šibenik archipelago, known for its fragrant pine forests, sunny climate with 2700 hours of sunshine per year, red coral used for traditional jewelry and serene beaches and bays.
